Experience and Integrity You Can Trust

For over 90 years, Meaden & Moore has been providing clients with tax advice, helping to minimize their tax burdens. We have always employed a top-notch team of professionals, who complete returns timely, accurately and to the client's best advantage. Still today, our team continually and aggressively seeks new tax-saving opportunities.

Meaden & Moore's tax professionals are approachable and accessible. They always keep your best interests in the forefront, making sound recommendations and following your business closely to ensure that you get the best advice at every turn.

Our professionals actively follow changes in tax laws and rulings, and share their knowledge with every member of the tax team, as well as our clients. We specialize in tax planning for privately held businesses, business succession planning, retirement planning and individual tax planning.

Our professional affiliations – as members of the American Institute of CPAs, the Ohio Society of CPAs, the Tax Club of Cleveland and Tax Twenty Group – keep us abreast of the latest tax and financial trends, and give us insights into what is working best for clients around the state and the nation. Your financial success, both business and personal, is Meaden & Moore's ultimate goal. Let our tax professionals help you achieve it.

In addition to traditional tax services, Meaden & Moore offers you expert counsel in these areas:

- Business succession
- Employer sponsored retirement plans
- Welfare benefit plans
- Personal financial planning
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Corporate reorganizations
- Not-for-Profit organizations
- Estate planning and charitable giving strategies
- Retirement planning
